*Debbie Stier is a publishing executive responsible for publicizing dozens of iconic books. Frequently covered by the media, Debbie regularly speaks on topics pertaining to social media and technology and most recently standardized testing. Author Debbie Stier “went to school” on standardized testing. Her soon to be released book is funny and compelling. As an attempt to help her high-school age son, she took the SAT and enrolled in review courses. She shares why the SAT has become so important, the cottage industries it has spawned, what really works in preparing for the test and what is a waste of time.

Her advice to parents includes: How to Motivate a Teenager; What’s the Most Effective Way to Study; How to Handle Anxiety; Test Day Tips; and more.
